Beforehand: ask people to put something in their background which doesn't belong there (1 or 2 items) for people to guess when they arrive. It must be something that people can see. A bit like 'Guess the odd-one -out object in the shop window' competition. (Our participants chose a dragon, slippers, cuddly pig, out of date calendar and a fully decorated Christmas tree!)

Remind people to have a nightlight and matches ready for the Epilogue.

1. SIMON SAYS: get different people (incl. children) to lead

2. WHAT'S IN THE BOX?: one family hides something in a box and everyone has to ask Yes/ No/ animal/ vegetable/ mineral questions to work out what it is (We chose a cuddly sheep and a banana)

3. MAKATON SIGNING SINGALONG '5 little monkeys', everyone joins in and tries to learn the signs by the end of the song - it's a repetitive counting-down song Ask different family to do 3 little monkeys, 2 and 1 (very funny!)

4. CROSS SECTIONS OF CHOCOLATE BAR PUZZLE (see attached) 20 images. 2 mins to write down then all pool answers at end.

5. KITCHEN BAND: breakout rooms. Everyone in each group needs to fetch something from their kitchen to play as a musical instrument and a practice a song together to perform to the others (our songs were The Music Man and Jingle Bells...each group choses their own)

STORY: 'Bear Snores On' by Karma Wilson

Beforehand: ask people to bring a packet of Maltesers and a metal tape measure. Remind people to have a nightlight and matches ready for the Epilogue.

- 1. TAPE MEASURE & MALTESTER CHALLENGE : stretch out the tape measure and balance the Malteser to roll down the tape measure into your own or someone else's mouth. Who can make the longest run? You can pretend to direct the tape measure into someone else's screen and they can pretend to eat the Malteser!

- 2. SQUEAK PIGGY SQUEAK. 2 guessers cover eyes. Host sends chat message to pick a piggy. Piggy squeaks and 2 guessers guess who it is. Repeat a few times.
- 3. CLOSE UP: slide of 8 close-up pictures on Powerpoint: you have to guess what the object is. Share screen. Big group. Write down answers. Feedback to big group and work out collectively.
- 4. RIDDLES: someone reads out some riddles for the others to guess.
- 5. GUESS THE PERSON in 3 THINGS: small breakout rooms (4 people or 2/3 families). Choose one person in group, 3 things:
- a food you'd refuse to eat
 - something you're good at
 - what time you'd like to go to bed
- Come back to the big group. Someone from each breakout room reads out the chosen person's 3 things. Everyone guesses who in the group is it.
- 6. PAPER TEAR BEHIND BACK: tear your paper into the shape of a Christmas tree without turning round. Everyone shares what they've created in turn
